

Community Services for Independence North West (CSINW) is seeking to hire Personal Assistants to work in Fort Frances, Atikokan and the surrounding areas. Duties will include providing personal support care and assistance with activities of daily living to our Consumers.

We are looking to hire dynamic, energetic, responsible and caring individuals that understand and value assisting individuals through self-directed care, while living independently in their own home. CSINW is able to offer part-time positions, flexible working hours and shifts that will work around your availability. Hours available include mornings, afternoons, evenings and some on-call shifts, 7 days a week with a strong need for weekend coverage.

Successful applicants will be required to provide an acceptable Vulnerable Sector Police Records Check upon hire, as well as obtain first aid & CPR Level C Certification. Previous experience is not mandatory, as CSINW is willing to fully train the appropriate candidates, and we can offer immediate start dates.

CSINW provides a competitive pay rate of 23.95-25.62 which includes a $3 per hour government wage enhancement. Applicants must be legally entitled to work in Canada.
